Tellurium-Q Statement Power Cord

www.telluriumq.com
$5,500

We have had nothing but fantastic luck with every Tellurium-Q product we've used. Their cables make up half of our reference gear, and as you know we don't use, review or endorse much when it comes to the world of wire.

But the Tellurium-Q stuff is the real deal, and their power cord has the same effect that their signal cables offer.

It's simple. Their cable brings you closer to the music, with fewer artifacts, full stop.

We'll have a little more commentary for those of you that care to indulge us very soon.
